Designed for modern family life, the house offers generous rooms, a large garden, double garage and driveway, and split level accommodation.

Being close to the waters at Restronguet Creek offers a fantastic relaxed lifestyle, whilst also having the convenience of the City of Truro within a 10 minute drive.

Approaching the home the front garden benefits from being very private with a front hedge shielding the house. There is plenty of off street parking as well as a double garage.

Entering the home there is are two forward facing bedrooms on either side of the entrance hall. The smaller of these makes a useful office. A half flight of stairs leads up to a very large master bedroom with a private, south facing balcony offering superb views over Restronguet Creek. The bedroom has an en-suite shower room and a walk in wardrobe. A second bedroom is of a good size and there is a family bathroom with freestanding bath and separate shower on this floor.

On the ground floor the very large sitting room (24' x 14') has three sliding doors leading out to the garden. There is an electric 'wood burner' on one wall as a feature. An adjoining dining room provides plenty of space for family gatherings. Next to this is a recently upgraded kitchen with a range of gloss cabinets with a wood worktop housing a double oven range with induction hob and a Fisker and Paykel Double drawer dishwasher. There is a breakfast bar with additional storage and a free standing Siemens fridge. The sink sits below a dual aspect window which overlooks the garden. An inner hall leads from the kitchen to a separate utility room, a w/c and a door leading into the garage.

The south facing garden has a composite deck just outside the sitting room a good sized lawn and is bordered by mature hedges for privacy. The garden is larger than it appears in the photos as there is a 'secret garden' hidden beyond the lower hedge which hides a greenhouse.
